

WORK IS progressing on the Little League ball park being built in the Fort Brown area. Present plans call for the park to be completed within two weeks. After the park is completed, the next thing is lights for night games.

After a promising start here last year, Little League ball seems destined to grow into one of the Valley's top summer sporting activities.

Clipped By:

dinoxc

Tue, Apr 21, 2020