

Playoffs In Little League All-Stars Opening Tonight

Brownsville's Little League all-stars open a playoff series for the city championship tonight at Lions Park. Game time will be 8 p. m.

The two teams, picked from teams in the East and West Brownsville leagues, will represent the city in district playoff competition in Raymondville starting August 4.

Games will be played tonight and Tuesday nights at Lions Park.

Votes Saturday

Fred Rocio, former county commissioner, received a write-in vote for county commissioner of precinct 2.

President Truman received several votes for county judge and one person was a write-in candidate for comptroller of public accounts for the state.

At 2 a.m. Sunday, Sengo and other election officials as well as interested persons were still mingling in the courtroom awaiting more results. And the write-in votes continued to be heard.

One person received a write-in vote for state representative from district 39, place 2, while others received for various state and county offices.

All in all, write-in votes are a headache to election officials, especially when there is a large

A third game, if necessary to decide the best out of three series, will be played at 5 p. m. Wednesday at the West Lions annex.

Due to the luck of the draw, the series will be a preview to the district tournament opener. The two Brownsville teams will go against each other in the first game at Raymondville with the winner advancing to a second round game against Edinburg.

The West league team, announced Monday, includes four players: from the championship Lions team, three from the Brownsville Shrimp Exchange, three from Pan American Bank and four from Junior Service League.

Tonight's starters will be: Marcelle Gutierrez, Lions, pitcher; Nisco Hinojosa, Lions, catcher; Bobby Houde, Little Shrimps, first base; John Scanlon, Lions, second base; Hector Garcia, Junior Service League, third base; Stephen DeWall, Pan American, shortstop; and David Graham, Pan American, Ramon Rodriguez, Junior Service and Jerry Dorris, Little Shrimps, outfield.

Other team members are Larry Jackson and Felipe Abrego, Junior Service; Larry Kveton, Lions; Sylvester Guajardo, Pan American; and Alonzo Zamora, Little Shrimps.
