and placed five men on the squad. Mercury two and First National Bank one.

Roberto Rocha is the most likely mound starter for the East league in tonight's game. The Kiwanis hurler will be throwing them in to Praxites Pina of the Herald team. Other probable starters are: Dunne Anderson, Kiwanis, first base; Lupe Cerda, First National, second base; Bobby Balmori, Herald, third base; Alfred Linares, Kiwanis, shortstop; and Joe Sarabia, Herald, Romualdi Gamboa, Mercury and Alfonso Ramirez, Herald, outfield.

East team's reserves include Ernest Esparza, Mike Reese and Danny Cruhm, Kiwanis; Jose Tapia, Herald and Jerry Lawson, Mercury.

There is no official charge for Little League games. However, in an effort to raise funds to defray tournament expenses, the two leagues have put on sale $1.00 donation tickets which will be good for admission to the three games but are not necessary. A free-will collection will also be taken during the games.
