

Kiwanis Gains Tie For Top In Little League

Kiwanis moved back into a tie for the Kiwanis Little League lead Wednesday, slapping down First National Bank, 15-8.

The Kiwanis nine is now tied for the top spot with the Brownsville Herald. Each has a second half record of two wins and no losses.

The winners had two big innings, scoring six times in the first frame and picking up another half dozen in the fourth. First National splurged for four of their runs in the fourth.

Michael Reese was the winning pitcher although he got help from Roberto Rocha and Danny Cruhm. Bobby Teran was the loser.
