

WE'VE still got a bit too much baseball and softball and not enough fields to handle them. The shifting of West Lions Little League games from Ringgold Park helped solve the problem there but a new conflict has arisen at the West Brownsville Lions Club field. The representatives of the kid league and the mens softball loop are scheduled to get together though and we're sure they'll be able to work something out that will solve the new problem.

Clipped By:

dinoxc

Tue, Apr 21, 2020